

Washington State Integrated Care Conference Grand Challenge

Call for Submissions: Innovations in Team-based Care

Do you work on an integrated health care team that takes care of each other, communicates well, or functions at a higher level? We are looking for clinics that have strategized and innovated to foster successful integrated health care teams, whether it's addressing burnout, retaining workforce or improving communication. We are inviting submissions to speak on our discussant panel as part of our Grand Challenge at the Washington State Integrated Care Conference.

Submission details:

- ✓ Complete 250-word proposal describing your team-based innovation, your clinic name/location, and team members
- ✓ Deadline: Feb 28, 2020
- ✓ If selected, present at ICC on May 29, 2020 in Seattle with free registration and up to $250 of travel costs per person for up to 4 team members
- ✓ Eligibility: Washington state-based clinic teams
